PLAINTIFFS' ORIGINAL COMPLAINT
FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS AND DECLARATORY JUDGMENT
UNDER THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT

To the Honorable Judges of this Court:

COME NOW Tyreishia Dechante Noble and Olayemi Johnson Oladele, Plaintiffs in the above-styled and numbered cause, by and through the undersigned attorney of record, and for cause of action would show unto the Court the following:

1. This is an action for mandamus, brought against the Defendants to compel action on an immigrant visa petition and adjustment of status application filed by Plaintiff. The petition and application were presented to and remain within the jurisdiction of the Defendants, who have improperly withheld action on said petition and application to Plaintiff's detriment.

2. The claims for mandamus and injunctive relief seek an order from the Court compelling Defendants to perform a duty that Defendants owe to Plaintiff, namely to cause Defendants to adjudicate and process Plaintiff's petition and application. The claim for declaratory relief seeks a judicial declaration that Defendants are required under law to complete the adjudication process for Plaintiff.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff Tyreisha Dechante Noble [hereinafter Plaintiff Noble], is a United States Citizen who is married to Plaintiff, Oluyemi Johnson Oladele and filed an I-130 immigrant visa petition on his behalf on or about June 20, 2019 which as will be shown, Defendant have unlawfully withheld adjudication.
4. Plaintiff Oluyemi Johnson Oladele [hereinafter Plaintiff Omadele], (Alien Number: A219 233 154) is a native and citizen of Nigeria. His wife, Plaintiff Noble filed a Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, on his behalf, concurrently filing his own Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, which, as will be shown, Defendants have unlawfully failed to adjudicate.

5. Defendant Ur Mendoza Jaddou is the Director of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services [hereinafter, USCIS] a branch of the Department of Homeland Security. The USCIS is charged with all adjudication duties pertaining to immigration applications. Defendant is the official of the USCIS generally charged with administrative and supervisory authority over all operations of the USCIS.
6. Defendant Nicolas S. Bartell is the USCIS Montgomery Field Office Deputy Director. Defendant Bartell is sued in his official capacity and is the official of USCIS generally charged with supervisory authority over operations of USCIS within his District with certain specific exceptions not relevant here. 8 C.F.R. § 103.1(g)(2)(ii)(B) Specifically, Defendant is responsible for the adjudication of Petitions for Alien Relative and Applications to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status in his service area. As will be shown, Defendant is the official with whom Plaintiff's applications were properly filed.

JURISDICTION

7. Jurisdiction, in this case, is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1361, 5 U.S.C. § 701 et seq.; and, 28 U.S.C. § 2201 et seq. Relief is requested according to said statutes.

VENUE

8. Venue is proper in this court, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e), that this is an action against officers and agencies of the United States in their official capacities brought in the district where the Plaintiff in the action resides, and no real property is involved in the action.

EXHAUSTION OF REMEDIES

9. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies. No other remedy is adequate in this case because Defendants have not updated nor made a decision on the Plaintiff's three-and-a-half-year-old Petition for Alien Relative and Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. Immediate action, such as that offered by a mandamus action under the Administrative Procedure Act, is the only relief available.

LEGAL BACKGROUND

10. This Court has jurisdiction to review USCIS's action concerning Plaintiffs' immigration case according to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and the Administrative Procedures Act. See Kim v. Ashcroft, 340 F. Supp. 2d 384 (S.D.N.Y. 2004) (holding that subject matter jurisdiction exists pursuant to the Defendant's violation of 5 U.S.C. § 555(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA") in conjunction with the federal question statute); Yu v. Brown, 36 F. Supp.2d 922, 930 (D.N.M. 1999) (noting that "courts have specifically recognized jurisdiction under § 1331 and the APA to hear challenges to INS delays in processing visas, LPR, and citizen applications").

11. The APA, 5 USC §701 et seq. at § 704 states that acts by government agencies that are, “final agency action for which there is no other adequate remedy in a court are subject to judicial review.” There is no other appropriate remedy in this situation because USCIS withheld action on Plaintiffs’ petition. There not being any other adequate remedy in this situation, the only option for Plaintiffs is this instant action in this court.

12. Moreover, 5 U.S.C. § 706 states:

The reviewing court shall—

(1) compel agency action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed; and
(2) hold unlawful and set aside agency action, findings, and conclusions found to be—

(A) arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law;

(B) contrary to constitutional right, power, privilege, or immunity;

(C) in excess of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right;

(D) without observance of procedure required by law;

(E) unsupported by substantial evidence in a case subject to sections 556 and 557 of this title or otherwise reviewed on the record of an agency hearing provided by statute; or

(F) unwarranted by the facts to the extent that the facts are subject to trial de novo by the reviewing court.

13. In this case, this Court has jurisdiction to set aside agency actions that are “arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law.” Thus, this Court has jurisdiction to compel agency action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed because Defendants have failed to process the petition and application filed by Plaintiff and his spouse.
14. A U.S. Citizen spouse or child files a petition on behalf of the non-citizen on Form I-130, otherwise known as a Petition for Alien Relative. Approval of this petition allows an immigrant visa to be immediately available to the Beneficiary of said petition. INA § 201 [8 U.S.C. § 1151(b)(2)(A)(i)].
15. Defendants have willfully and unreasonably withheld action on Plaintiff’s I-130 petition and I-485 application, preventing Plaintiff from advancing his pursuit of Lawful Permanent Resident status.
16. The Defendants, in violation of the Administrative Procedures Act, 5 USC §701 et seq., have unlawfully withheld action on Plaintiff’s petition and therefore, have failed to carry out the adjudicative functions delegated to them by law with regard to Plaintiff’s case.
17. Accordingly, Plaintiff has been forced to pursue the instant action.

CAUSE OF ACTION

18. Plaintiff Omadele is a Nigerian native and citizen who entered the United States on a B-2 visa on February 22, 2017. See Exhibit 1, I-94. He married his United States citizen spouse, Plaintiff Noble on November 1, 2018. See Exhibit 2, Marriage Certificate.
19. On June 20, 2019, Plaintiffs filed their Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, and Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. See Exhibit 3, Request for Evidence.
20. On October 3, 2021, USCIS issued a Request for Evidence seeking additional evidence of shared life in support of the Petition and Application. See Exhibit 3, Request for Evidence. Plaintiffs timely responded.
21. USCIS has conducted an initial interview with Plaintiffs. See Exhibit 4, USCIS Case Status.
22. Plaintiffs have received no further communication from the Service, having fulfilled all the requirements to have his I-130 Petition and I-485 Application adjudicated. Moreover, said applications have been pending with Defendants for over four years.
23. Defendants' failure to take the appropriate action required by law to adjudicate Plaintiffs' Petition and Application is denying them a privilege to which they are entitled. Accordingly, Plaintiffs are suffering continuing harm due to this unreasonable delay.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray this Honorable Court grant the following relief:

- A. Enjoin Defendants from further delaying the adjudication of Plaintiffs' I-130 Petition and I-485 Application;
- B. To compel the Defendants and their agents to immediately adjudicate Plaintiffs' I-130 Petition and I-485 Application according to the law and regulations by which they are bound;
- C. Award Plaintiff reasonable attorney's fees; and,
- D. Grant such other and further relief at law and in equity as justice may require.

Respectfully submitted,

This 7th day of July, 2023.
